

Newton girls win medals at gymnastics competition

Newton residents Andrea Chirieac and Julia Wang of the New England Sports Academy Rhythmic Gymnastics team both won medals at the sixth annual Boston Cup Rhythmic Gymnastics Invitational. This international meet attracted athletes from countries as far away as Russia, Kuwait, Puerto Rico and Thailand, as well as from all over the United States.

Chirieac, 11, won first place in the Level 7 Junior Division. She also earned first place for the Ribbon and Hoop events.

Wang placed fifth in the Level 7 Junior Division. She also placed second in the Hoop event and third in the Floor Exercise.
